

We were so hot and heavy, when our love affair began
You were my party girl, I was your lover man
We'd go strong all night long, 'til the sun came through the blinds
Get up in the morning grab a cup of coffee, and make it into work on time

You can still light a fire under me, it just takes a bigger flame
Hearing's not what it used to be, so speak up when you call my name
You still got just what it takes, to make me weak in the knees
Whisper sweet things into my ear, but baby won't you speak up please

High school reunion was so much fun, can't believe it's been that many years
Good the see the old gang again, and drink down some imported beers
The band was rocking, we were dancing, to all our old favorite songs
I'm soaking in the hot tub now, I think I might have danced too long

You can still light a fire under me, it just takes a bigger flame
Hearing's not what it used to be, so speak up when you call my name
You still got just what it takes, to make me weak in the knees
Whisper sweet things into my ear, but baby won't you speak up please

Now we are no spring chickens, but I still love to see your face
As I walk up to our house I'm thinking, too many stairs around this place
Aches and pains were feelings used to be, arch supports in both my shoes
You are still the party girl for me, sweep away all my blues

You can still light a fire under me, it just takes a bigger flame
Hearing's not what it used to be, so speak up when you scream my name
You still got just what it takes, to make me weak in the knees
Whisper sweet things into my ear, but baby won't you speak up please
