

This old life is treating me OK, I got everything I need
Got me a job that pays the bills, Pair of good boots on my feet
Got myself a real sweet ride, And a big Oklahoma sky
The prettiest girl at Sonic, And a Frito Chili Pie!

At the end of the day when I clock out, I can't wait 'til I see her
I know she'll have a kiss for me, And an ice cold glass of beer
Got my health, a front porch swing, And a big Oklahoma sky
The prettiest girl at Sonic, And a Frito Chili Pie!

Every night I say my prayers, Before I go to sleep
Watch over my whole family, Lord, Bless my soul to keep
Thank you Lord for the gifts you give, For the big Oklahoma sky
For the prettiest girl at Sonic, And the Frito Chili Pie!
