

Damn! 9 volt Battery

Richard 'Daddy' Love

Copyright 06 Richard 'Daddy' Love

3/23/06

E A E
I was rockin', the band was cookin', The crowd was going wild

E B
Young girls dancing in front of the stage, Flashing me those smiles

E A E
I started into my lead break, I was making that guitar scream

E A
And then $\wedge v \wedge v \wedge v \wedge v \wedge v \wedge v$ (static sound effect), Ruined my whole thing

E A - [chorus]

Damn! 9 volt batt'ry, messed up my guitar,

E B
Damn! 9 volt batt'ry, I was gonna be a star

E A
Damn! 9 volt batt'ry, Messed up my whole show

E B
Damn! 9 volt batt'ry, Why did you have to go?

E A E
It was a quiet night at the coffeehouse, the smell of java filled the place

E B
I was in the corner with my acoustic, a tear running down my face

E A E
A tender song about a lost love, Exposing my very soul

E B
Guitar sounded so warm & clear, $\wedge v \wedge v \wedge v \wedge v$ (static), I almost lost control

E A - [chorus]

Damn! 9 volt batt'ry, messed up my guitar,

E B

Damn! 9 volt batt'ry, I was gonna be a star

E A

Damn! 9 volt batt'ry, Messed up my whole show

E B

Damn! 9 volt batt'ry, Why did you have to go?

E A E

So I went down to the music store, Got me some power supplies

E B

Extension cords and outlet strips, Determination in my eyes

E A E

Next show was going great, the crowd had started to sing

E B

I had everything plugged into the wall, Then somehow I broke 3 strings!

E A - [chorus]

Damn! 9 volt batt'ry, messed up my guitar,

E B

Damn! 9 volt batt'ry, I was gonna be a star

E A

Damn! 9 volt batt'ry, Messed up my whole show

E B

Damn! 9 volt batt'ry, Why did you have to go?